PUBLISHER'S NOTE

Here is a whole bestiary full of the whimsical, inventive animal renderings so unique to great Celtic art. Sixteen drawings are printed on special translucent paper so that when you hang them in a window or in front of another light source they will glow very much like stained glass.

Apply color to these distinctive animals with crayons, felt-tip pens, acrylics, watercolors, tempera, or oil paint, and watch them take on new life. Color one side, or both. Use different colors on each side, and you will produce rich combinations. If you color one side only, try placing the sheet in your window with the colored side facing outdoors; this will produce a crisper black outline.

Stained Glass Coloring Book

Mallory Pearce

This intriguing stained glass coloring book invites colorists of all ages to recreate the sinuous, intertwined patterns and fabulous creatures imaginatively portrayed in Celtic art. Artist Mallory Pearce has expertly rendered 16 fanciful designs depicting such improbable configurations as two fish entangled in their own tails, a mermaid enveloped by endless strands of her own hair, as well as stylized birds, serpents, mythological figures, and a bestiary of other fantastic animals.

Adapted from original works of art, these eye-catching inventive vignettes all incorporate the distinctive spirals and weaves of Celtic design. To bring these handsome, full-page illustrations to life, simply apply color with crayons, felt-tip pens, acrylic paints or other media and then place the pictures in a window or near another source of light to produce dazzling stained-glass effects.

Original Dover (1999) publication. 16 full-page black-and-white illustrations printed on translucent paper. 8½ x 11. Paperbound.
